SPECIAL ANNOUNCEMENTS

Sunday, March 6 2016

Fairtrade Fortnight, February 29- March 13

FAITH MATTERS: A series of reflections through Lent led by Stephen Best: Thursday 10 March; Wednesday 16 March.

THREE CHOIRS MUSIC FOR PALM SUNDAY: Practices are taking place on Sunday evenings in Beulah at 7.00 pm.

FAIRTRADE BREAKFAST: On March 13 as part of Fair Trade fortnight, beginning with prayers at 9.15am and breakfast served from 9.30. Please sign your names on the list by next Sunday– and if you could make something using Fairtrade and ethically sourced ingredients, please let Louise know.

PRODUCERS FROM PALESTINE: As part of Fairtrade Fortnight there will be an evening with producers from Palestine in Chapter Arts Centre on Tuesday 8th March from 7.30pm.

WORSHIP TRAINING: Stephen has offered to lead a session on March 14 on writing intercessory prayers. If you are interested in attending this, please speak to me or Stephen.

PLANTING DAY: March 19th in the Garden at 10.00 am. Please see Ian Mc Dowell or Ann Brown for more details.

MR POTATO HEAD: Ian McDowell has packs for growing your own potatoes and will be available after church this morning. Cost per pack - £2.50 (which includes 50p for KIN)

ALMS BOWLS: Please save your small change throughout Lent to bring to church on Easter Sunday morning.

REFUGEE COMMUNITY KITCHEN: we are collecting items of food this week and next. The following items are needed: tinned tomatoes, tomato puree, tuna, sardines, kidney beans, chick peas. Tea, coffee, lentils, basmati rice, raisins, sultana.

EASTER COMPETITIONS: the closing date for the children's Easter competitions is Palm Sunday. The winners will be announced in the service on Easter morning. Full details are in Crossroads.
